

Community Partnerships Roundtable

Sector Communique for Meeting held 16th September 2021

The Community Partnerships Roundtable met on 16 September at the Department of Communities.

The Community Partnerships Roundtable is co-chaired by the Director General of Department of Communities (Communities) and the Chief Executive Officer of the Western Australian Council of Social Service.

Key outcomes from the meeting:

- A Commissioning Working Group will be established between the Department, CPR and other selected members to support the development and delivery of the Agency Commissioning Plan.
- A Data Sharing Working Group will be established between the Department, CPR and other selected members to examine the principles and opportunities for data sharing between the Department and the sector.
- Work is underway on the Departments Integrated Operating Model.

Further Information

The intent of the Community Partnerships Roundtable is to bring together Communities and the community services sector to identify and implement better ways of working together for the benefit of the Western Australian community.
