About this Report

The purpose of this report is to provide information about the work carried out by the Magistrates Court of Western Australia where the accused has identified themselves as Indigenous. Upon arrest or charge, the Police ask the accused the Standard Indigenous Question which was developed in conjunction with the Australian Bureau of Statistics. The Indigenous Status is then forwarded electronically to the court with the prosecution and charge details.

A number of different statistics have been included that illustrate different aspects of the criminal court process. Care must be taken in interpreting these statistics. It is NOT possible to compare one indicator with another as the methods of counting are not aligned.

Counting Rules:

- (a) These are the number of criminal cases lodged against Indigenous Australians in Magistrates Court in Western Australia, broken down by offence type.
- (b) The Australian Standard Offence Classification (ASOC) has been used to group offences. ASOC is a national standard developed by the Australian Bureau of Statistics. For more detail, please refer to www.abs.gov.au/ausstats/abs@.nsf/cat/1234.0
- (c) 'Case' refers to an offender processed through the Magistrates Criminal jurisdiction with one or more charges lodged on any one occasion (e.g. an offender with 16 charges lodged on 14 February and same offender with a further 8 new charges lodged the following day but all heard together in Court on 15 March counts as two cases, not one case or 24 cases).
- (d) Offence descriptions used here are based on the ASOC Division (the top level of the 3 level ASOC hierarchy).
- (e) Excludes all civil cases, Extraordinary Driver's Licence applications, Restraining Order applications and Protection and Care applications.
- (f) 'n/a' in the % Change column indicates that the calculation is 'not appropriate' given that the values of the columns in the table being compared are less than or equal to 10. Comparing values this low is statistically meaningless.

Total	17,004	19,676	22,783	19,273	16,991	-11.8%	-0.1%

Counting Rules:

- Counts the number of criminal cases against Indigenous Australians finalised by the Magistrates Court in Western Australia. A case is only counted the first time it is finalised. Cases that have previously been finalised then reactivated and finalised once more have been excluded from this count.
- Finalisation is defined as the determination of a case in the Magistrates Court Criminal jurisdiction and involves any action, activity or court order that renders the case unable to proceed any further in that jurisdiction. Examples of finalising actions are the imposition of a sentence, a finding of not-guilty following a trial or the withdrawal of the case by the prosecution.
- The issue of an arrest warrant for failure to attend court when required to do so is not considered a finalisation, even though it renders the case unable to proceed.
- Only the initial finalisation of a case is counted here. Under some circumstances, a criminal case will be reactivated (for example: to make a minor order for the destruction of drugs or for the return of stolen property where that order had not been sought at the time of sentence) but they are generally consequential to the initial method of finalisation.
- The 'Method of Finalisation' used in the table above has been developed by the Australian Bureau of Statistics to assist with the comparison of court outcomes across Australia. Please refer to the appendix for more detail.
- 'n/a' in the % Change column indicates that the calculation is 'not appropriate' given that the values of the columns in the table being compared are less than or equal to 10. Comparing values this low is statistically meaningless.

Counting Rules:

- (a) Counts only those finalised cases against Indigenous Australians where a sentence was imposed by the Magistrates Court.
- (b) Imprisonment means a term to be served in a Prison.
- (c) Suspended Imprisonment means that a term of Imprisonment has been ordered, but that the offender is released without having to serve the sentence in a prison provided that they do not reoffend.
- (d) Intensive Supervision Orders and Community Based Orders usually have a community work component as well as a supervision component and may require the offender to comply with a programme condition (for example anger management, alcohol abuse treatment, etc) and may also require the offender to comply with a curfew condition. In addition to this order the court may require the offender to pay the costs of bringing the case to court or to pay a victim compensation.
- (e) A Fine order may include an order requiring the offender to pay the costs of bringing the case to court or to pay a victim compensation.
- (f) A Conditional Release Order and Good Behaviour Bond are orders that the offender agree to be of good behaviour for a defined period of time with the condition that if they fail to do so, will forfeit a set amount of money. In addition to this order the court may require the offender to pay the costs of bringing the case to court or to pay a victim compensation.
- (g) A Work and Development Order is imposed by the court when a fine would normally be imposed but the offender has no means to pay the fine so they are ordered to perform community work in lieu of the fine.
- (h) No Punishment is an order by the court that the offender be release without a formal sentence being imposed. No punishment orders are generally only used for first time offenders or where the court is satisfied that the offender has been punished by some other means. In addition to this order the court may require the offender to pay the costs of bringing the case to court or to pay a victim compensation.
- (i) 'n/a' in the % Change column indicates that the calculation is 'not appropriate' given that the values of the columns in the table being compared are less than or equal to 10. Comparing values this low is statistically meaningless.

Counting Rules:

- (a) Counts those cases against Indigenous Australians that received a custodial sentence in the Magistrates Court, broken down by the most serious offence on the case.
- (b) As a case may have more than one charge, the most serious offence for which the offender has been sentenced is shown above. The most serious offence is derived by applying the National Offence Index, which ranks the ASOC offences from least serious to most serious.
- (c) The Australian Standard Offence Classification (ASOC) has been used to group offences. ASOC is a national standard developed by the Australian Bureau of Statistics. For more detail, please refer to www.abs.gov.au/ausstats/abs@.nsf/cat/1234.0

- (c) An arrest warrant is returned to court following the arrest of the accused and subsequent appearance in the court, or the relisting of the charge or charges before the court to have the warrant cancelled.
- (d) A warrant counted here relates to one person with one or more charges being returned to court following the arrest of an accused or the relisted of warrant charges on the same date.
- (e) Warrants Issued and Warrants returned should not be compared. Because the count of warrants issued and warrants returned is based on a count of an individual at a court sitting on a particular date, the number of charges involved may be different. It is common for warrants to be issued on a number of different occasions but once the accuse is apprehended and brought to court, all the charges from the different warrant issue occasions are put before the court on the same day.

Counting Rules:

- These are the number of criminal cases lodged against Indigenous Australians in the Magistrates Court in Western Australia where the accused was arrested and then either released on bail or remanded in custody prior to the initial court appearance. Cases proceeding by way of summons or notice to attend are not counted here.
- Cases have been broken down by Offence Type. The Australian Standard Offence Classification (ASOC) has been used to group offences. ASOC is a national standard developed by the Australian Bureau of Statistics. For more detail, please refer to www.abs.gov.au/ausstats/abs@.nsf/cat/1234.0
- Case refers to an offender processed through the Magistrates Court Criminal jurisdictions with one or more charges lodged on any one occasion (e.g. an offender with 16 charges lodged on 14 February and same offender with 8 new charges heard in Court on 15 March counts as two cases, not one case or 24 cases).
- Only initial lodgments are counted, excluding all arrest warrant returns and reactivated cases.
- Excludes all civil cases, Extraordinary Driver's Licence applications, Restraining Order applications and Protection and Care applications.
- 'n/a' in the % Change column indicates that the calculation is 'not appropriate' given that the values of the columns in the table being compared are less than or equal to 1%. Comparing values this low is statistically meaningless.
