

Thrive Consent Form

Empowering individuals and families to lead their best lives

What is Thrive?

Thrive is an early intervention support program which helps Aboriginal housing and public housing clients to overcome difficulties which are impacting on their ability to reach their social and economic goals. If you are eligible to participate, a Thrive Service Provider will work with you to build a personalised support plan to help you reach your goals. To ensure that you receive support appropriate to your individual needs you must complete the consent to share information section below.

Consent to share information

I _____ authorise the Housing Authority, which operates within the Department of Communities, or its Regional Service Provider to refer me to the Thrive program. In providing my authorisation I:

- Consent to my information being collected and shared between the Housing Authority or its Regional Service Provider and the Thrive Service Provider.
- Understand that my information will still be treated in a confidential manner by the Housing Authority or its Regional Service Provider and the Thrive Service Provider.
- Understand that I can withdraw this consent at any time by contacting the Housing Authority or its Regional Service Provider.
- Understand that if I withdraw my consent that I may need to exit the Thrive program.
- Understand that providing this consent does not guarantee me a place in the Thrive program.
