

The Specialists For Hydraulic, Industrial and Offshore Hose Assemblies

HDS Hoses is an Australian owned Market leading specialist in hose assembly and testing, with a commitment to provide the highest service and products.

HDS Hoses Australia was founded in 2006 in Perth, and now operates facilities in Perth and Brisbane, supplying thousands of tested hoses per month.

Accredited to ISO 9001:2015, ISO 17025:2017 (NATA) for pressure testing, and Authorised by DNV and Lloyds Register of shipping to supply certified assemblies. We provide hoses into Defence, Oil and Gas, and the heavy duty OEM mining markets.

Key Capabilities

- DNV Certified Hose assemblies
- NATA Accredited Test Facility
- Pressure testing up to 58,000psi
- Crimping of hoses up to 305mm diameter
- Materials traceability for stainless steel fittings
- Large Stock holding
- Long term cooperation with established Australian suppliers
- National Footprint
- ISO9001:2015 accredited
- ISO17025:2017 (NATA) Accredited
- Reliable Solutions

Industry Capability

Our Defence and Certified hose team is focused on understanding and recognising the unique requirement and certification in these fields, traceability from bar stock for all stainless steel fittings, a range of IACS type approved hoses, and fully traceable pressure testing.

We are able to mobilise quickly to offer our customers with the best turnaround because we are supported by some of the worlds leading hydraulic hose and fitting manufacturers.