

The Forest Products Commission (FPC) sells sustainably managed timber to a range of customers. Our wood products can be purchased directly from the local sawmills, timber suppliers, hardware stores and retailers listed through below. Please note, we cannot guarantee that every product available from the suppliers below has been sourced from the FPC.

We endeavour to ensure the information below is accurate at the time of publishing. Due to changes in the native forest timber industry, the details listed may change based on the circumstances of individual suppliers. Please contact the individual suppliers for specific information.
