The Legal Costs Committee has complied with the notice provisions of section 278 of the Act.

3 Inquiries and submissions under section 277 of the Act

Before making the Legal Profession (Magistrates Court) (Family Law) Determination 2022 the Legal Costs Committee:

- (a) reviewed all submissions received as a result of the notice given under section 278 of the Act including those made by The Law Society of Western Australia (Inc) and the Family Law Practitioners Association of Western Australia;
- (b) considered the comments and suggestions made at a seminar with members of the legal profession held on 2 February 2022;

PART 3 – REPORT OF LEGAL COSTS COMMITTEE'S CONCLUSIONS

4 Maximum hourly and daily rates changed – scale of costs

- (a) The Legal Costs Committee has determined that as a consequence of the information gained from the inquiries, the submissions described in clause 3, and having regard to the provisions of the Family Law Rules 2004:
 - (1) it is unnecessary as at the date of this Report to recommend the implementation of a scale of fees for family law work done in the Magistrates Court of Western Australia in respect of party/party costs; but
 - (2) it is appropriate to determine a scale of fees applicable to the work of legal practitioners, clerks and paralegals in, and in connection with for family law work done in the Magistrates Court of Western Australia on a legal practitioner/client basis; and

- (3) it is appropriate to continue to adopt the same hourly and daily rates (inclusive of GST) set out in Table A of the Legal Profession (Family Court of Western Australia) Determination 2022 to be published on or about the same date as this Report and Determination, as the hourly and daily rates applicable to legal practitioners and clerks/paralegals for family law work done in the Magistrates Court of Western Australia, as set out in Table A in the Legal Profession (Magistrates Court) (Family Law) Determination 2022.
- (b) The recommendations of the Legal Costs Committee are not intended to override the entitlement of a legal practitioner to make a written agreement as to costs with a client under the Act.

Schedule

LEGAL PROFESSION ACT 2008

LEGAL PROFESSION (MAGISTRATES COURT) (FAMILY LAW) DETERMINATION 2022

Made by the Legal Costs Committee under section 275 of the Legal Profession Act 2008 (Act).

1 Citation

This Determination may be cited as the Legal Profession (Magistrates Court) (Family Law) Determination 2022.

2 Commencement

This Determination comes into operation on 1 July 2022.

3 Application

This Determination applies to the remuneration of legal practitioners, clerks and paralegals in respect of advice given by legal practitioners in or for the purposes of family law proceedings before a Magistrate in Western Australia, whether in the Magistrates Court at 150 Terrace Road, Perth or in the Magistrates Court of Western Australia sitting anywhere within the State of Western Australia.

4 No minimum charge

In no respect is this Determination to be seen as providing a minimum charge for any work.

5 Increase generally

- (a) The Committee is of the view that increases in the cost of practice over the past several years have justified an increase in the rates in Table A.
- (b) The Committee made no general increase in the 2020 review as a result of the uncertain economic climate at that time due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Given the economic picture in 2022 is more positive, and the fact that rate rises have been modest for the past decade, the Committee determined it was appropriate to include a general increase.
- (c) In making its decision, the Committee is particularly cognisant of the increased costs to law practices occasioned by the purchase of technology and training to enable legal practitioners and staff to work remotely, and investments made by law practices in staff well-being initiatives.
- (d) Other costs incurred by law practices as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, for example the purchase of sanitiser, masks, rapid antigen tests and other similar measures, are intended to be covered by the rates in this Determination and are not properly chargeable to clients as disbursements.
- (e) The increase in the rates in this Determination are not uniform but have been calculated, generally, on the basis of a 5% increase, with a rounding so that each amount is divisible by 11 in accordance with the long-standing policy of the Committee.

6 Maximum hourly and daily rates

- (a) The hourly and daily rates set out in Table A are the maximum hourly and daily rates, inclusive of GST, which the Legal Costs Committee determines shall be used to calculate the dollar amounts chargeable by a legal practitioner, clerk or paralegal in providing advice and services to their own clients in respect of family law proceedings and potential proceedings before a Magistrate in Western Australia, whether in the Magistrates Court at 150 Terrace Road, Perth or in the Magistrates Court of Western Australia sitting anywhere within the State of Western Australia.
- (b) The daily rates set out in Table A are intended to cover all work done on a hearing or trial day, whether in or out of court, including preparation of written submissions and are not intended to be supplemented in any way by additional hourly charges given that the maximum number of hours allowed for the daily rate is 10 hours per day.

Table A

Notes:

- 1 The reference to Restricted Practitioner, Junior Practitioner or Senior Practitioner in this Determination includes all legal practitioners even if the services were rendered in another State or Territory. - 2 The reference to Restricted Practitioner in this Determination includes practitioners undertaking restricted legal practice for the purposes of obtaining the required experience set out in section 50 of the Act and does not include a reference to an Australian legal practitioner who has a condition placed on their practising certificate by the Legal Practice Board, State Administrative Tribunal or otherwise, requiring them to practise under supervision for disciplinary, medical or other reasons.
- 3 The reference to Clerk/Paralegal in this Determination includes a law graduate prior to their admission to practise as an Australian lawyer.
- 4 The reference to Counsel in this Determination means a practitioner acting as a barrister other than a Senior Counsel, including, for the purposes of items 10, 11, 17, 22, 25 and 26, a practitioner appearing in court who does not practise in accordance with Supreme Court Practice Direction 10.5.

- 5 The reference to Senior Counsel in this Determination means a person within the meaning of item 11 or item 12 of Regulation 5(2) of the Legal Profession Regulations 2009 (WA).
