Complaint lodgement checklist

Office use only

- Have you made your complaint in time?
- Building service complaints must be made:
    - within six years of the work being completed.
  - Home building work contract complaints must be made within:
    - three years of the contract date;
    - three years of the breach of contract occurring; or
    - three years of the cause of action arising.
- Have you included a copy of the Notice of Proposed Complaint?
- At least 14 days prior to lodging your complaint, you must provide the respondent with notice of:
- your intention to lodge the complaint;
  - the remedy you are seeking; and
  - the evidence upon which you intend to rely.
- The notice must be in writing and should outline all of the subject items of the complaint, including the remedy you are seeking for each. A Notice of Proposed Complaint pro-forma can be found at www.dmirs.wa.gov.au/building-commission.
- Have you provided a list of complaint items?
- You must provide a clear list of the items of your complaint and the remedy you are seeking for each. A schedule of complaint is located on page 3 of the complaint form for your use. The items of complaint should reflect those provided to the respondent in the Notice of Proposed Complaint.
- Have you provided proof of service?
- Please complete section 7: "Preliminary action", and sign the declaration in section 8 of the complaint form.
- Have you included sufficient information to confirm who the respondent is, the nature of the works performed, the value of the works and when the works were completed? This may be done by including one or more of the following:
- Copy of the contract/invoices.
  - Copy of the building permit (can be obtained from local government authority).
  - Other correspondence.
- Is there any other relevant correspondence?
- Please include copies of other correspondence or documentation relevant to the complaint where applicable.
- Have you provided the respondent's contact details?
- The respondent's contact details should include a postal address, telephone number and email if available. Failure to provide an address for the service of documents may result in your complaint being refused.

Failure to provide the above information may result in lengthy delays or in the Building Commissioner refusing to accept your complaint
